7:00pm ET	Welcome Rachel: Welcome to the 2020 Kentucky 4-H Night of Inspiration brought to you by the Kentucky 4-H Foundation, the Kentucky Soybean Board and AppHarvest. I am Rachel Noble, Extension Specialist for 4-H youth Development and I have Melissa Miller, ED of the Kentucky 4-H Foundation here with me tonight. Melissa: Thank you, Rachel. We are excited to share this evening with you as we celebrate the past year and look to the future! We would like to thank our sponsors and stakeholders for helping us inspire Kentucky 4-H youth across our Commonwealth. Rachel: To kick things off tonight we would like to invite Mrs. Becky Kinder to bring greetings on behalf of tonight's sponsor the Kentucky Soybean Board and introduce our special guest for the evening. But first I think Ben has a short video from the Soybean Board to play for us.	Rachel and Melissa on Screen Ben will let Becky on from waiting room. Rachel and Melissa turn video off

7:15pm ET	Rachel: Ramel we are excited to have you with us today – thank you for sharing your story! Our outgoing 2020 Kentucky 4-H State Officers are here with us today with a few questions for you if that's okay? Ramel: Thanks for having me – yes let's get some questions going! Rachel: Great! I am happy to introduce to you our 2020 outgoing state officers President Gloria Bolin, Vice President Luke Jacobs, Secretary Hannah Snyder, and Treasurer Reba Prather.	Rachel turn video on Ben lets Ramel in from waiting room Officers let in from waiting room as names are called
7:18pm ET	Rachel: It's great to see you all. Thank you for joining us! Ramel, again, thank you for your words of wisdom and inspiration. The Kentucky 4-H officers have some questions for you about how they can take your lessons you've learned and help others apply those to their lives. We'll start with Gloria.	(Officers in Green Jackets) Rachel Ramel Gloria Hannah Luke Reba

- 1) Gloria: Ramel, in your story you talk about leaving your home community of Brooklyn and coming back, can you speak on the importance of expanding your world-view and then coming back to contribute and apply your new skills and thought-processes to the betterment of your community?

Ramel answers.

Rachel: Thank you, Ramel. *Rachel will say something about answer. Hannah has our next question:

- 2) Hannah: I've seen sporting your "faith and grit" shirt - what do these words mean to you and how would you suggest youth apply these concepts to their lives?

Ramel answers.

Rachel: Thank you, Ramel. *Rachel will say something about answer. Luke has our next question:

- 3) Luke: How did your time with the UK College of Agriculture, Food and Environment prepare you for your life and current passions?

Ramel answers.

Rachel: Thank you, Ramel. *Rachel will say something about answer. Reba has our next question:

- 4) Reba: What is the greatest lesson you learned playing basketball for the University of Kentucky?

Rachel: Thank you, Ramel for joining us and supporting Kentucky 4-H. We are inspired by your role in advancing agriculture in the Commonwealth and supporting our future generation of leaders.

Ramel: Pleasure to be here – good luck to this year's officers and keep up the good work Kentucky 4-H – you are the future of our beautiful Commonwealth!

Ramel leaves. Rachel turn video off. Gloria stays on. Other officers turn off video. (Officers turn themselves back on when introduced.

	Gloria: Following Ramel’s words of inspiration, today you have a unique opportunity to hear from the four 4-H members who have been selected to represent this organization over the next year as the 2020-2021 Kentucky 4-H State Officers. These four individuals have prepared platform speeches that focus on issues that are currently impacting youth across the Commonwealth of Kentucky. The candidates will speak on their platform and at the conclusion of tonight’s event you will have the chance to vote on which platform you would like for the officer team to focus on throughout their term in office.

Rachel turn video on.
7:55pm	Rachel: Thank you to our Kentucky 4-H officers outgoing and incoming, the Kentucky 4-H Foundation, Kentucky 4-H professionals, volunteers, the Kentucky Soybean Board and AppHarvest for inspiring and supporting Kentucky 4-H youth and helping them stay involved during this pandemic.	Rachel and Melissa video on to end event.

	Melissa: The Foundation is so happy to support this event, Rachel. Again, we want to thank the sponsor of this evening the Kentucky Soybean Board. We are grateful for your commitment to supporting the growth of Kentucky's youth. I also again want to thank Ramel and AppHarvest for taking the time to be a part of this night. AppHarvest believes Appalachia is a region of hard work, tenacity, and ingenuity and is committed to building strong communities around innovative agriculture. We appreciate the investment you are making in Kentucky's future. Rachel: Just like these stakeholders we, as Kentucky 4-H, have an impact on the Commonwealth. Kentucky 4-Hers contribute in ways beyond our local community by taking action! Kentucky 4-H invites you to take part in our organization's future by voting on the state officer platform and with voting for the tagline that will serve as the foundation for 2021 programming. You already heard the platform speeches from the incoming Kentucky 4-H State Officers. The taglines we ask you to vote on are: #innovateky4h #imagineky4h #growky4h Voting will open at the end of this event. Please watch for the image on our social media pages where you can find the link to vote. Voting will stay open until Monday, July 20th. The results will be announced on the Kentucky 4-H Facebook and Instagram pages. We look forward to reconnecting with you face to face, but until then we hope that you are staying healthy at home. Remember, Kentucky 4-H, we will get through this together...to make the best better for our clubs, our communities, our country, and our world. Until next time!	Melissa Rachel Rachel and Melissa turn off video.
