

Clover Mail - February Edition

Are you Into It?

Rachel E. Noble,
Extension Specialist for 4-H Youth Development

Kentucky 4-H State Teen Council

- The Council voted on changes made to the Bylaws by the Slating Committee.
- STC members prepared for upcoming Teen Summit sessions.
- STC members voted on the design for the Teen Conference t-shirt.

Look at all we learned!

Guest Presentations

Teen Summit Training

- The STC members were visited by various camp staff that led workshops that taught council members how to lead games at Teen Summit, and how to engage the middle schoolers at Teen Summit.

Happy Huddles

Happy Huddle Scavenger Hunt

- STC members were tasked with identifying the officer a group member was imitating. They then had to work together to find bags that contained unsolved puzzle pieces. The teams worked together to solve the puzzle.

Etiquette Dinner

Etiquette Dinner

- STC members participated in an Etiquette workshop where Miss Jennifer taught proper etiquette skills for dinner settings. The STC members then participated in an Etiquette lunch where they practiced their new learned skills.

Activities Cont.

Pass it on! STC members participated in the following this weekend...

Communication

- STC members participated in a Mock Interview Contest. Returning members also competed in a Cover Letter contest.

Community Service

- STC members used old strips of t-shirts to make dog toys for local animal shelters.

Leadership

- State Teen Council members learned how to effectively lead groups of middle schoolers while also keeping their attention. We also learned how to engage and make meaningful connections with the Teen Summit delegates.

Take 4-H Leadership Further!

STC Spotlight

Clay Comer

Clay says he enjoys impacting Ky 4-H through STC. It has taught him how to work in both large and small groups of people to get a job done. This is Clays second year on council. He is from Clark county, in district 4.

Officer Spotlight

Luke Jacobs

Luke says he enjoys getting to meet fellow 4-Her's from across the state and getting to bond with them in STC. It has taught him leadership skills as well as how to include everyone and see an issue from another person's perspective. This is Lukes third year on council. He is from Butler county, in district 6. His favorite thing so far about his officer term is traveling around Kentucky and seeing new places and meeting new people.
