4-H YOUTH DEVELOPMENT

All Educational Program Chairmen are expected to work together to integrate their program of work when possible. This program should address the youth of Kentucky and KEHA’s bond with those youth. The chairmen should consider the following when planning the program of work:

- Provide a link between KEHA and Cooperative Extension Service (CES) 4-H Youth Development Program, and attend Kentucky 4-H Council meetings and events. (Usually held in January 2nd week, and July.)
- Become knowledgeable and encourage participation in state 4-H programs such as:
  - Consumer in Me
  - Be the ‘e’ Entrepreneurship
  - Workforce Preparation
  - Building a Healthy Wealthy Future
  - High School Financial Planning
- Encourage KEHA Members to serve as 4-H Volunteer Leaders.
- Encourage KEHA Members to be involved with 4-H events such as; judges, sponsors, or coordinators.
- Promote youth membership in KEHA.
- Encourage all KEHA Members to be involved in youth activities such as; Project Graduation, family nights, violence prevention, teenage pregnancy prevention, mentoring, tutoring, drug and alcohol prevention.

4-H Youth Development
2014-2017 Program of Work

Situation: In a Tufts University study, in cooperation with the Institute for Applied Research in Youth Development, research has shown, “Entrepreneurship affords promising opportunities to people in low-income communities, and has the potential to contribute in positive ways to economic well-being and positive social change in society.” Kentucky’s has experienced high unemployment rates, and a dramatic loss of local industry, therefore KEHA fostering of entrepreneurship in 4-H youth will significantly enhance business and social communities across the commonwealth.

Focus: Introduce and encourage entrepreneurial concept in middle and high school aged youth. Increase awareness of the local entrepreneurs, and consumerism of local businesses.

2014-2015
Be the “E”: Entrepreneurship – Level 1: Love It!

Goals:
Introduce young people to the concept of entrepreneurship. Youth discover what it is, who has done it, how some famous products got started, how to find and make business opportunities, and the rewards possible from owning a business. Through activities youth learn what it takes to be an entrepreneur and whether or not they have the "right stuff" to meet the challenges.

Objectives: Level I:
- To fully explain what “Be the ‘e’: Entrepreneurship” is
- To identify potential business opportunities for youth
- To utilize information correctly, to develop research, and evaluate themselves as an entrepreneur.

Suggested Lessons:
Youth Lessons – Use the lesson plan for 4-H Youth Development, Be the “E”: Entrepreneurship – Level 1: Love It! This lesson plan is available from your local 4-H Youth Development agent or your area Homemaker 4-H Youth Development Chairman.

Homemaker Lessons – Use the lesson plan for “Let the Consumer Beware: in Tough Economic Times.” This lesson plan is available from your local Family Consumer Sciences Agent, or your 4-H youth Development Chairman.

Special Suggested Activity:
- Have a local entrepreneur discuss their business and steps to starting their business
- Conduct a local promotion of buying local goods and services.
2015-2016
Be the “E”: Entrepreneurship – Level 2: Plan It!

Goals:
Youth participate in a series of planning experiences that give them the skills needed to function successfully as an entrepreneur. They learn about types of businesses, products and pricing, marketing, partnerships, agreements and contracts. They also learn about opportunity costs, how to connect their other skills and interests to money-making opportunities, the crucial importance of timing for an entrepreneurial enterprise and how to write a business plan.

Objectives:

- Participants and local community identify resources to make local entrepreneurship businesses successful.
- Youth and participants have the necessary tools to start a business plan.

Suggested Lessons:
Youth Lessons – Use the lesson plan for 4-H Youth Development, Be the “E”: Entrepreneurship – Level 1: Plan It! This lesson plan is available from your local 4-H Youth Development agent or your area Homemaker 4-H Youth Development Chairman.

Special Suggested Activity:
- Have a local entrepreneur discuss their business and steps to starting their business
- Conduct a local promotion of buying local goods and services.
Goals:
Youth actually go through the process of researching and creating a business plan. They learn to do market surveys, budget forecasts, plan exit strategies, develop business ethics, project and control cash flow, and learn how to satisfy a customer while developing, presenting and implementing the business plan.

Objectives:
- Participants research and effectively evaluate business opportunities.
- Participants effectively use life skills such as communication, organization, problem solving, and good decision making to positively create an entrepreneurial business.

Suggested Lessons:
